Invented for life

- ▶ File configuration
- ▶ Firmware upgrade
- ▶ Control panel remote control

Direct Link Adapter (DLA) IUI-SOL-ADAPTER is a brand new configuration tool which is designed for installers based on the concept of user experience. As an accessory of Solution Series panels, it can not only fulfill the basic need of panel programming and configuration files upload/download to/from the panel, but also enable the remote control to panel via A-Link Plus software and free the installers from carrying a computer everywhere for the firmware upgrade, portable and simple.

Functions

Upload/Download configuration files

DLA stores up to three panel configuration files, connect DLA and panel with an SDI2 interconnect wiring connector and select one of the files at one time by the jumper.

Enter the installer programming menu via an alphanumeric or ICON codepad, upload configuration file from DLA to the panel or download configuration file from panel to DLA by entering different installer codes.

Firmware upgrade

Connect DLA and panel with an SDI2 interconnect wiring connector, firmware file stored in DLA can be uploaded to the control panel for firmware upgrade.

Remote control

Connect DLA to the control panel with an SDI2 interconnect wiring connector, and then connect DLA to the PC using A-Link Plus with a USB cable. A-Link Plus can remote control the control panel via DLA.
